THE GIRL WHO SWALLOWED A CACTUS

by Eric Coble

8-year-old Sheila and her pack of pals aren't going to let the summer heat wear them down. The adventurers find themselves deep in the desert, facing The Council of Howls, The Sting Brigade, The Death Cactus, and much more. It's a whirlwind adventure about how we affect the environment and the animals with whom we share the planet. This original play will captivate and inspire audiences of all ages with the power of memory and imagination.

THE SAVANNAH SIPPING SOCIETY

by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope, and Jamie Wooten

In this delightful, laugh-a-minute comedy, four unique Southern women, all needing to escape the sameness of their day-to-day routines, are drawn together by Fate—and an impromptu happy hour—and decide it's high time to reclaim the enthusiasm for life they've lost through the years. Over months filled with laughter, hilarious misadventures, and the occasional liquid refreshment, these middle-aged women successfully bond and find the confidence to jumpstart their new lives. Together, they discover lasting friendships and a renewed determination to live in the moment—and most importantly, realize it's never too late to make new old friends.

SHOW DATES:

Fridays at 7:30pm:	Oct. 20, 27	Nov. 3, 10
Saturdays at 7:30pm:	Oct. 21, 28	Nov. 4, 11

THE WAIT

by Tyler West

The New York Times described West as “tireless... and manages to always be in the moment, reacting to whatever everybody around him is doing without coming across as obnoxious.” His one-man-physical-comedy show “The Wait” has traveled all around the world to various fringe festivals and theatres, winning awards like “Best Solo Show” (Tucson Fringe 2018), “Staff Pick” (2018 Minnesota Fringe), & “Cultural Exchange Award” (2018 San Diego Fringe Festival). If you’ve seen “The Wait” (formerly known as “Abeyance”) before, you’ll be surprised to see a new and improved action-packed, live-sound effect, imaginative extravaganza. Come and join Tyler as he waits.

Only 3 performances. Space is limited!

THE BIG DIPPER: CALENDAR, COMPASS, AND CLOCK

Co-presented by The Red Herring Puppets

Created By: Lisa Sturz / Red Herring Puppets

What is the most easily recognizable star pattern in the sky? Discover the mystery and science of the Big Dipper through stories from the ancient Chinese, Micmac Indians, Greek, and Aztec cultures, and the Southern slaves following the “drinkin gourd” to freedom. Combining skillfully crafted marionettes and shadow puppets, we see how the stars can be used to tell time, track the seasons, and find your way at night.

5TH ANNUAL YOUNG PLAYWRIGHTS OF TUCSON

This acclaimed program encourages students from all over our community to write and submit their short stories. Each top young playwright is teamed up with one of LTW's seasoned playwrights/directors to help get their plays from scripts to the stage. Local talented students audition, perform, and run the tech for all of the shows. With the help of LTW's Children's Theatre leaders, these students take the stage and give a voice to the stories they want everyone to hear. These performances are a great way to see the amazing talent of our Tucson youth.

Only 2 performances. Space is limited!

SHOW DATES:

Saturday, June 1, 2024 at 2:00pm

Sunday, June 2, 2024 at 12:00pm
